

THE EAGLE

St. John's Weekly Newsletter February 8, 2026

How long is “a long time”? Waiting until dinner instead of quickly answering a hunger pain can seem long. But it's not. Waiting for proof of innocence on behalf of a wrongfully-imprisoned man is impossible to imagine. “A long time” is relative. But the truth of God is not relative. It's absolute and certain.

Israel waited 430 years to be released from slavery in Egypt. God made their rescue a reality. This is most certainly true.

In ten days, we begin the Lenten season, and will listen to the true story of Israel's rescue in the book of Exodus. God, of course, will be at the heart of it, for only He can bring true freedom – not only for Israel, but for you. Your slavery has been answered by His sacrifice.

If you think you're not a slave to sin, read Romans 7. You'll find yourself nodding your head in agreement with St. Paul, then rejoicing as he exclaims, “who will rescue me from this body of death? Thanks be to God; He gives us the victory through Jesus Christ our Lord.” This will be our Lenten midweek theme.

The rescue He accomplishes isn't temporary. More than “a long time,” it's for all time.

Two new aspects of the midweek Lenten Services: a) on Ash Wednesday, the imposition of ashes will be available to all who desire them before and after the Services (arrive 15 minutes before Service), and b) we will use the “Service of Prayer and Preaching” (p. 260) direct from the hymnal.

Printed Lenten Devotions in the Atrium are best used for your neighbor. You can get the same devotions every day via email from Lutheran Hour Ministries at www.LHM.org. The printed booklet could be a gift from you to someone who does not have a church home. They will thank you for sharing the love of Christ our King.

LENTEN MIDWEEK SERVICES

12:15pm & 6:30pm Wednesdays

February 18 – March 25

“Exodus”

Hopefully you received my email Tuesday with an attached letter from CID Acting District President Mark Eddy. In it he announced that I stepped down from the Board. Pastor Eddy is already doing an excellent job leading our District, and we all ought to be praying for him daily. Lord, have mercy.

This weekend we are attending a family wedding. We will miss being with you in Service, but will rejoice in at least two truths: one, when we go to the Lord's Supper Sunday morning in another LCMS congregation far away, we're still united with you while you're coming to Communion here at St. John's. Two, marriage is God's good gift, the union of one man and one woman until death parts them. Two beautiful realities. Give thanks!

Lesson 5

In the lesson for this week, "Wise Men Worship," God leads Gentile scholars to worship the Christ. Following their visit, Joseph immediately flees with his young family to the safety of Egypt. When Herod's insane jealousy dies with him, the Holy Family returns home to Nazareth. Discuss, "How does God keep you and I safe today?"

Preschool Registration for 2026/2027

Preschool Registration for members of St. John's is now open. Visit the website for a registration form, or pick up a registration form on the bulletin board or stop by the office. If you have any questions, please contact Carrie in the church office.

Stewardship Moment

Matthew 5:17 – "Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them." We cannot keep the Law of God perfectly. We are sinners. For us to be saved, Jesus had to fulfill the Law in our place so that the threat of the Law is abolished and the Law itself is upheld. Now, in Christ, we do desire to fulfill the Law, to live out a godly Christian life, precisely because we are so full of thanksgiving toward God for His salvation in Christ.

LIFE QUOTE From Lutherans for Life

"God loves you in your vulnerability so much that He subjected Himself to conform to a vulnerable human body. So today ... remember that Jesus, in whom all things hold together, loves you, individually. He is fully present with you just as He was in His mother's arms. God's peace be with you this day, this night." Andrea Delwiche – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • lutheransforlife.org
